

MEDIA LITERACY

ST. FRANCIS SEXUAL ABUSE AND
ASSAULT PREVENTION PROGRAM

(609)494-1554

24/7 CONFIDENTIAL HOTLINE

(609)494-1090

What is Media Literacy?

Media literacy is the ability to access, analyze, evaluate and create media messages

ST. FRANCIS SEXUAL ABUSE AND ASSAULT PREVENTION PROGRAM

Offers media literacy curriculum to young adults and their parents through schools and other programs to educate about the link between media and sexual violence and assist young adults in becoming media literate.

Contact St. Francis Sexual Abuse and Assault Prevention Program to learn more!
(609) 494-1554

HOW TO BE A PROACTIVE MEDIA CONSUMER

- Question what you see (or what you don't see in the media
- Speak out about your opinion on various types of media
- Start discussions about media messages
- Contact media industry executives and express your opinions about their media representation

This card was supported by the State of New Jersey Sexual Assault, Abuse and Rape Care (SAARC) Funds, administered by the Department of Children and Families.